

BEING BRAVE - CONTINUED

Think about someone you admire for their bravery - it could be a person in your family, a famous person or a character from a book or movie. Draw a picture of them and write about why you admire them. Think of them whenever you need to be brave!

